

LESSON 23

You are going to learn:

The Future

- We use the future tense to express an action that has not happened yet , but that will happen in future time (tomorrow , next week , month , in 2006...)

1-Affirmative : We form the future with :
shall or will + infinitive of verb

eg : - I shall leave tomorrow .
- They will come next week .

Shall is used with : I and We
- We can use the weak form «'ll »

eg : - We'll go tomorrow
- They will finish the work next week .
- They 'll finish the work next week

2-Negative :

We form the negative form with :

will not or shall not + infinitive of verb

- We can use the forms : shan't / won't.
- I shall not / shan't visit the South this week .
- They will not / won't leave after dinner .

3-Interrogative :

We form the interrogative form with :

Shall / will + subj + infinitive

eg : - Shall we go tomorrow ?
- Will you phone me next week ?

The Promise

Mary : Why are you so sad , Betsy ?

Betsy : We shall leave tomorrow and we shall not see each other at all !!! Everyone will be back to his country

Mary : Listen , I promise that we shall write to each other and we shall plan another trip all together.

Betsy : Are you sure ? You will not forget me .

Pierre : As soon as I get home , I shall call you
