

Read-2

CAMELS

A Camel is a special animal. It can live in the desert. Few animals are able to live there. A camel has humps on its back . Some camels have one hump. Some have two. Camels can store food in their humps.

A camel's mouth is special too. Its lips are covered with a strong skin. Its teeth are strong. A Camel can eat the spiny plants of the desert. A camel does not need to drink often.It drinks a great deal at once and stores water in its body.A camel can go for days without drinking again. Some people call the camel a " ship of the desert ".

Read the story and underline the best answers for these questions.

1 – Where does a camel live ?

- a – mountains
- d - desert
- c – farms

2 – Where can a camel store food ?

- a – cheeks
- b – stomach
- c – hump

3 – The mouth of the camel is covered with

- a – fur
- b – hair
- c – strong skin

4 – Camels can go for days without

- a – resting
- b- drinking
- c – walking

5 – Camels are called "....." of the desert

- a – ships
- b – cows
- c – horses