

First Term English Exam

A little bit of crazy and a whole lot of SANE

Life in the sane lane

If you want to live longer, you should learn to live healthy, therefore, to eat sane food. By sane, I mean how healthful a food is for us; it is the way we can choose foods based on their quality.

Eating sane foods will help our hormones and metabolism to heal, allowing our body to give up any excess of fat. Sane foods give us energy and make us feel fantastic!

Sane foods are foods that are satisfying, unaggressive and nutritious. Sane lifestyle focuses on eating foods that are high in water, fiber, protein and avoiding processed meats, margarine, soda, sugars and other sweeteners.....
