

English Exam N° 1

Timgad The Ancient Roman City

Timgad is an archaeological Roman city located in the province of Batna in the Aurès region. It was called TAMOUGADI. It was founded by the emperor Trajan in 100 AD as military defense center. It is characterized by its various facilities " temples, thermal baths, forum and theater". It was built in a form of a chess board covering an area of 90 hectares.

In view of its excellent state of conservation and its architecture, Timgad is the typical example of the ancient Roman city which still retains its initial design in the world. It was registered by the UNESCO as a World Heritage site in 1982.
