Hello my friend,

I am happy to tell you about the itinerary of my wonderful trip around Europe.

First, I started my trip from the capital London and flew to Lisbon, Portugal. I arrived at 10:00 a.m. I walked around the city where I saw many beautiful sights. Then, I went to Batalha town and visited "Batalha Monastery" which is one of the most impressive masterpieces. I had my lunch there and ate caldo verde soup which is very tasty. Next, I travelled on TGV (high speed train) to Barcelona, Spain, to see the famous building "La Sagrada Familia" which was designed by the talented architect Antonio Gaudi. I took many photos there with some Spanish friends and enjoyed our dinner by having the traditional rice dish "Paella". I spent the night in that town because I wanted to stay with my friends as much as I can. After that, I moved to France and visited the splendid monument made of iron the "Eiffel Tower". I also walked along the Seine banks and ate very delicious crepes. Later, I sailed to Italy on a cruise ship. I visited the floating city "Venice" and walked over lots of bridges like "Rialto Bridge". I ate "spaghetti" at Fiola Restaurant with a fascinating view on canals.

Finally, I came back to London after having nice days and unforgettable moments. What about your summer itinerary?

Bye for now,
Emily

Hello my friend,

Last summer holiday, I went on a tour around Algeria. First, I travelled by coach to an old city in the northeast part of Algeria called Constantine. I saw the splendid suspended Bridge of Sidi M'Cid which was built by the French engineer Ferdinand Arnodin. Then, I took the train to Tamanrasset, in southern Algeria, to visit the magnificent Hoggar Mountains or Ahaggar Mountains. In this town, I saw the prehistoric wall carvings of different creatures that made the Sahara their home long ago. I enjoyed the best sunset in the world and I tasted the Saharan tea. After that, I flew to Oran with a stopover in Bechar for one night. In Oran, I visited a historic site named Santa Cruz Fort that was constructed by the Spaniards in the 17th century. I ate couscous at Royal Restaurant and it was very delicious. Finally, I returned to Mascara by taxi after spending fantastic and gratifying days.

Best regards,
Marwa
