In the past, the way people lived was very different from nowadays. It includes lifestyle, ways of dwelling, education, communication, fashion, entertainment, transportation and many other aspects.

In old times, life was difficult. The conditions of living were not comfortable. People used to live in houses made of mud ,clay, bricks and wood with no electric appliances and running water. In addition, people used to do most of the work by hands. They used to dress up in simple ways and travelled using cycles, tongas and animals. There were not many schools and sources of entertainment. People used to spend more time with their friends. They played simple games and told stories to each other.

Nowadays, we live in comfortable houses, in high buildings with household appliances like fridge TV set, vacuum cleaner... etc. Most of the work is done by the computers and other machines whether at home or at work places.
